Honor Flight: One Last Mission at the Museum of Coastal Carolina

Ocean Isle Beach, NC – At 2 PM on November 11, the Museum of Coastal Carolina will present the movie Honor Flight: One Last Mission. This movie is a heartwarming documentary about four World War II veterans and a Midwest community coming together to give them the trip of a lifetime. The trips are called “Honor Flights” and for veterans, who are in their late 80’s and early 90’s, it is often the first time they have been thanked for their years of service. It is sometimes uncommon for veterans to talk about their war experiences but the Honor Flight trip brings their stories out.

The Museum of Coastal Carolina is located at 21 East Second Street, Ocean Isle Beach, NC. Admission to the museum is free for members. Non-member all-day admission is $9.50 for adults, $8.50 for seniors, $7.50 for children (3-12), and free for age 2 and under.
